D. No. 395.
Encl 1
To

The Chief Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore.

Sir,

In reply to your official Mems No. 388 of the 26th Ultimo, I have the honor to report that the post of Distillery Muttuddy held by Narsappa the Petitioner was abolished and an Excise official on Rs. 10/ appointed under the new scale sanctioned in Proceedings No. 2257-8 of the 28th March 1887.

2. The Distillery Establishment at Shimoga was under the orders of the Dy Commissioner of that District and the usual notice required under Section 104 of the Civil Pension Code would have been given by that officer to the officials about to be thrown out but there was in this case hardly any time to do so, as the Scheme came into force and all the new hands were appointed almost at once on 1st April last. Narsappa is therefore entitled to the Bonus of 3 months' pay, as was granted to the Dy Superviser, Mr. Arnold. His pension papers are under preparation in the District office at Shimoga.

3. The enclosure is herewith returned.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most-Obedient Servant.

Damages &c from the Dept Comm^r Banpahe &c, stating that the only cases in which Distillery Servants are entitled to the retiring [illegible] are Varadappa Lok Gowda and Mooda Naik, Sappedar of the Govt Distillery Establishment at Banpahe.

SECTION 54

Order thereon.

It is noted at the foot of the Proposition Statement attached to this Office Circ: No 2257 of 28th March 1887 sanctioning revised Excise Establishment for the Province with effect from 1st April 87, that until the Shimoga Distillery is abolished the Establishment on the revised scale would look after the distillery there.

2. In his letter No 395 of 9th September 87, the Dy: Comm^r of Banpahe reported that as the distillery establishment at Shimoga was under the orders of the Dy: Comm^r of that District, the usual notice would have been given by that Office to the Superintendent of Shimoga distillery about to be known, but that there was no [illegible] any time to do so as the scheme came into force at once on 1st April 1887.

3. In the statements of services submitted with the docket read above the date of termination of Inamdar Annappa Muttadi Shanbhag's distillery is given as 12th May 1887 and that of Inooda Naik, Daffedar Distillery Satab. Bangalore as 5th April 1887. The three months notice required under section 104 of the Civil Pension Code thereby falls short in the case of Muttaddi Annappa by one month & twelve days and in that of Daffedar Inooda Naik by 5 days. The Dewan therefore sanctions the payment of a bonus of one month & eighteen days pay to the former and of 2 months & 25 days to the latter in addition to the pensions
